New York, June 28 (AP)—The Columbia Broadcasting System said today it "is not frivolous" to suspect that Lee Harvey Oswald had some connection with either the FBI or the Central Intelligence Agency.

In its last of a four-part television series on the Warren Report and the assassination of President Kennedy, the network concluded that the accused assassin's mother "may not be quite so wrong about some kind of link between Oswald and various intelligence agencies of the United States."

None of the agencies, the network noted, have made any comment on the possibility of such a link.

CBS to investigate themselves power to conduct its own, independent investigation.

when the commission had the "The Warren Commission seriously compromised itself by allowing the Secret Service, the FBI and the CIA to investigate questions involving their own actions," acbs said.
